The Raworth's massage courses, ITEC approved and fully accredited, contain the modules listed below. Please follow the links for more information.

Diploma in Swedish Massage

This is considered to be the fundamental classical training for all massage therapists. The emphasis in this module is on practical experience coupled with in-depth theoretical knowledge. With this qualification, you can be insured to practice as a massage therapist. This is especially useful to you if you progress to training in other therapies because you can be developing your confidence and building your client base in the 'real' world while still being in close contact with us through further study. Diploma in Indian Head Massage

This course gives you a thorough training in Indian Head Massage. This is an ancient therapy, which has grown in popularity in recent years, as more and more people experience its benefits. The course includes an in-depth study of the anatomy of the head, neck and face, plus sequential learning of over 50 massage movements in this specialised treatment. This is an excellent qualification to add to the Swedish Massage Diploma and one that allows you to attract more clients to your practice. Read More ?

Massage Practitioner's Diploma

This is our 'flagship' massage programme and includes a very wide range of skills and techniques. This allows you to build substantial and varied practice. You will be able to give each of your clients a massage tailored to their individual needs. The modular course structure allows you to add professional qualifications in each area without repetition or overlap, using your study time in the most efficient way. Read More ?
